Versions and Amendments

The language of legislation appears in various forms. Officially submitted language is available on the House website, the House Committee Calendar, the House Floor Calendar and BTOnline. Below is a brief explanation of the designations used and their next step in the process. Examples are appended.

Introduced (int)- The original language of a bill as filed by the principal author. Next Step- The bill will likely be assigned to a committee.

Proposed Subcommittee Amendment (subamd)- A proposed change to a bill, offered in subcommittee. Next Step- The subcommittee may consider the change.

Proposed Subcommittee Substitute (subpcs)- A proposed committee amendment which substitutes the entire contents of the introduced version with new or varying language, offered in subcommittee. Next Step- The subcommittee may consider the amendment.

Subcommittee Recommendation (subrec)- Changes adopted in subcommittee are drafted into a substitute version for the full committee. Next Step- The full committee may consider the recommendation.

Proposed Committee Amendment (fullamd)- A proposed change to a bill, offered in a full committee. Next Step- The committee may consider the amendment.

Proposed Committee Substitute (fullpcs)- A proposed committee amendment which substitutes the entire contents of the introduced version with new or varying language, offered in full committee. Next Step- The committee may consider the amendment.

Committee Substitute (cs)- Substantive changes adopted in committee are drafted into a committee substitute and attached to the committee report. Next Step- The committee substitute will become the House floor version and may be considered by the full House.

House Floor Version (hflr)- The version of the bill that is available for consideration by the full House. If the bill was assigned to committee, it will be the version approved by the committee. Next Step- The full House may consider the bill.

Floor Amendment (FA1)- A proposed change to a bill, offered to the floor version—also known as a "main amendment." Next Step- The full House may consider the change.

Floor Substitute (FA1)- A proposed floor amendment which substitutes the entire contents of the floor version with new or varying language—also known as a "main amendment." Next Step- The full House may consider the amendment.

Amendment to the Amendment (FA1-A1)- An amendment which amends a main amendment. Next Step- The full House may consider the amendment.

Engrossed (engr)- The version of a bill upon its passage from the house of origin. Next Step- This version moves to the opposite chamber for consideration.

Senate Amendments to House Bill (sahb)- Amendments passed in the Senate on a bill originating in the House. Next Step- The House may consider accepting or rejecting Senate amendments.

House Amendments to Senate Bills (hasb)- An amendment passed in the House on a bill originating in the Senate. Next Step- The Senate may consider accepting or rejecting House amendments.

Conference Committee Report (ccr)- The report detailing amendments accepted by the conference committee, which may include a conference committee substitute. The report includes signatures of members appointed to the conference committee. Next Step- the house of origin may adopt the report and send it to the opposite chamber for consideration.

Conference Committee Substitute (ccs)- An amendment which substitutes the entire contents of the bill with new or varying language, offered by a conference committee. Next Step- the house of origin may adopt the conference committee report containing the substitute and send it to the opposite chamber for consideration.

Enrolled (enr)- The final version of a bill that is sent to the Governor for signature.
