“Representative Lamons: Thank you, Madam Speaker. Representative, you know that a lot of times, the argument down here is not about the money - it's about the money. It's your intent and the leadership's intent of the House of Representatives to make this $93 million to be paid for federal upper payment limit at 100%. Is that your intent?”

Representative Steele: Is the question coming from you or my good friend, Senator Adelson?

Representative Lamons: From me.

Representative Steele: Okay. Yes, my intent, and I can only speak for myself at this point, is to make sure that this money, this $93 million state allocation, which will be matched with federal dollars to give us a little over $300 million - that money will be used to get providers to treat Medicaid patients up to their upper payment limit and doctors who are Medicaid providers up to 100% of Medicare.”
