Representative Armes Presiding

POINT OF ORDER

Representative Reynolds raised a point of order as to whether it is permissible for the Presiding Officer to delay a point of order until a later date when the point of order may be no longer be applicable. The Presiding Officer stated that it is the duty of the Presiding Officer to maintain order. The Speaker of the House had been recognized for a personal point of privilege and as such, the Presiding Officer was maintaining order by recognizing the Speaker and delaying the point of order.

Representative Reynolds raised a point of order as to where in the House Rules a member is permitted to offer personal comments before the House. The Presiding Officer referred to Section 9.5 of House Rules which provides for points of personal privilege and that as a new item of business, the point of personal privilege was properly scheduled through the Floor Leader. The Presiding Officer further stated that this is something that members are recognized to do each session and as such, the point was not well taken.
