GENERAL ORDER

SJR 68 by Jolley et al of the Senate and Mulready of the House was read and considered.

Representative Mulready moved to amend SJR 68 by striking the title, which amendment was declared adopted.

Representative Martin moved to amend SJR 68, Page 4, Section 1, Line 11 by inserting after the word "tier" and before the semicolon ";" the following language: "d. It shall be unlawful for any person under twenty-one (21) years of age to sell any alcoholic beverage containing more than three and two-tenths percent (3.2%) of alcohol by weight".

Representative Mulready moved to table the Martin amendment, which tabling motion prevailed upon roll call as follows:

Aye: Brumbaugh, Caldwell, Calvey, Cannaday, Casey, Christian, Condit, Derby, Dunnington, Echols, Griffith, Hall, Henke, Inman, Jordan, Joyner, Kannady, Kirby, Leewright, Lepak, McCall, Montgomery, Moore, Mulready, Munson, Murdock, Murphey, Newell, Nollan, O'Donnell, Pfeiffer, Proctor, Pruett, Renegar, Roberts (Dustin), Roberts (Sean), Rogers, Rousselot, Sears, Shoemake, Stone, Tadlock, Walker, Watson, Williams, Wood, Wright, Mr. Speaker.--48.

It shall be unlawful for any person under twenty-one (21) years of age to sell any alcoholic beverage containing more than three and two-tenths percent (3.2%) of alcohol by weight.”

Representative Mulready raised a point of order as to whether the Sherrer amendment was in order for consideration because it contained language identical to the Martin amendment which the House had just voted to lay on the table.

The Presiding Officer ruled the point well taken and the amendment out of order pursuant to Section 401, Paragraph 4 of Mason’s Manual.

Representative Sherrer raised an additional point of order stating that his amendment contained different punctuation than did the Martin amendment, which point was not well taken. The Presiding Officer ruled that the substance of both amendments was identical.

Representative Mulready attempted to withdraw his point of order but was not recognized by the Presiding Officer due to the fact that the Presiding Officer had already ruled on the point.

Representative Inman raised a point of order stating that pursuant to Section 65 and Section 398 of Mason’s Manual the action of laying an amendment on the table does not constitute final action.

The Presiding Officer referenced Section 337 of Mason’s Manual stating that the practice of the Oklahoma House of Representatives is to consider a motion to table as dispositive as evidenced by the fact that the Oklahoma House does not recognize a motion to take from the table. As such, the point was not well taken.

Representative Sherrer raised a point of order as to why after Representative Mulready had withdrawn his point and Representative Sherrer had withdrawn his point that the Chair determined sua sponte that the amendment was out of order, to which the Presiding Officer responded that the Presiding Officer had not permitted withdrawal of the Mulready point of order and had already ruled the amendment out of order. As such, the point was not well taken.

Representative Hardin moved to amend SJR 68, Page 9, Section 1 by deleting the language beginning with the second comma “,” on Line 5 and ending with the word “sales” on Line 7.

Representative Mulready moved to table the Hardin amendment, which tabling motion prevailed upon roll call as follows:

Aye: Bennett, Brumbaugh, Caldwell, Calvey, Cannaday, Casey, Christian, Cleveland, Condit, Denney, Echols, Griffith, Hall, Henke, Inman, Jordan, Kannady, Kirby, Leewright, Lepak, McCall, McCullough, McDaniel (Jeannie), Montgomery, Moore, Mulready, Murdock, Newell, Nollan, O'Donnell, Osborn, Perryman, Peterson, Pfeiffer, Proctor, Pruett, Renegar, Roberts (Dustin), Roberts (Sean), Rogers, Rousselot, Sears, Shoemake, Stone, Thomsen, Vaughan, Virgin, Walker, Watson, Wood, Wright, Mr. Speaker.--52.

Representative Russ moved to amend SJR 68, Page 4, Section 1, Line 11 by inserting after the word "tier" and before the semicolon ";" the following language:

d. any person or entity applying for a permit to sell alcoholic beverages shall certify that his or her employees who as part of their employment responsibilities sell, prepare, dispense, serve or otherwise deliver alcoholic beverages directly to patrons of the licensed establishment or who manage employees who do, have successfully completed a responsible alcoholic beverage server training program approved by the single state authority for substance abuse and the state oversight agency responsible for regulating alcohol sales, if such entities exist”.

Representative Mulready moved to table the Russ amendment, which tabling motion prevailed upon roll call as follows:

Aye: Brumbaugh, Caldwell, Calvey, Cannaday, Casey, Christian, Condit, Denney, Derby, Dunnington, Echols, Goodwin, Griffith, Hall, Henke, Inman, Jordan, Joyner, Kirby, Leewright, Lepak, Loring, McCall, McDaniel (Jeannie), Montgomery, Moore, Morrissette, Mulready, Murdock, Murphey, Newell, Nollan, O'Donnell, Osborn, Perryman, Pfeiffer, Proctor, Pruett, Renegar, Roberts (Dustin), Rogers, Rousselot, Scott, Sears, Shoemake, Stone, Tadlock, Thomsen, Virgin, Walker, Watson, Williams, Wood, Wright.--54.

Excused: Bennett, Brown, Cockroft, Enns, Faught, Fourkiller, Hoskin, Kouplén, Lockhart, McDaniel (Randy), McPeak, Ortega, Peterson, Roberts (Sean), Shelton, Wesselhoft.--16.

Representative Sherrer moved to suspend Joint Rule 7(b)(5) for the purpose of allowing consideration of SJR 68 after the Third Reading deadline.

Representative Biggs raised a point of order as to whether the Sherrer motion to suspend the Joint Rules was in order due to the fact that the Senate had already adjourned for the day, to which the Presiding Officer responded that the Chair could not speak to actions of the Senate but that the motion to suspend Joint Rules was presently in order.

Representative Sherrer pressed his motion, which motion failed of adoption upon roll call as follows:

Aye: Cox, Hardin, Johnson, Kouplen, Loring, Martin, Nelson, Ownbey, Perryman, Rousselot, Russ, Scott, Sears, Sherrer, Shoemake, Tadlock, Virgin, Williams.--18.

MOTION

Upon request of Representative Shelton, the remarks of Pastor Jessie Jackson are ordered printed in full as follows:

“I am a fourth generation minister. And I am unashamedly and unapologetically a Christian. I also happen to do a great deal of public speaking and public praying. And when I do, I always remember that everyone present may not believe what I believe. And that’s alright. There are many other faiths and a great number of Oklahomans that practice no faith at all. So whenever I pray publically in audiences where I am not sure of the makeup, I usually pray a somewhat neutral prayer. Not because I am ashamed, but because I would want others to be respectful of me as well.

But I am going to break my code this morning. I am going to intentionally give a Christian centric message, because the overwhelming majority of you claim some form of Christianity. Mahatma Gandhi is reported to have said ‘I like your Christ; I do not like your Christians’. I know what he meant, because when I hear some things and witness some things that come from people who claim the same faith that I do, it makes me ask ‘What Bible are you reading?’

From the time we first go to the Sunday school or Vacation Bible School, we begin to learn about this mystical, magical place called heaven. It’s the place that we all say that we are working for. It’s the place that we all say that we want to end up. And so the question is ‘How do we make it to Heaven?’ Well, Jesus told us. He told us how to punch our ticket to Heaven. But just to be honest, the price is just too steep for some to pay. Just in case some of you in here get religion this morning our congregation is just a few blocks south of here and our services begin at 11.

Christianity, if you are doing it right anyway, is not some ivory tower air conditioned study group. Christianity is a dirt under your finger nails, sweat on your brow journey. You don’t do ministry to people, you do ministry with people. And some people are attracted to certain aspects of Christianity but not all of it. Most of us have some St. Augustine in us: ‘Love save me, but not yet’. We want to go to Heaven but we want to reserve the right to do whatever it is that we have grown comfortable doing. We want to go to Heaven yet not forgive. We want to go to Heaven yet reserve the right to refrain from showing the compassion and the mercy that God has shown us. We want to go to Heaven yet engage in all facets of the sin or greed: building it, sustaining it and protecting it. And so some, like those found in the 6th chapter of the Gospel of John lament ‘This teaching is difficult, who can accept it?’ And ‘Because of this many of his disciples turned back and no longer went about with him’. Or like the rich young ruler of Mark chapter 10, who ‘When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions.’ I am reminded of a line in a song that we sometimes sing, ‘Everybody talking about Heaven ain’t going there’.

But in the 25th chapter of the Gospel of Matthew, Jesus tells us how to get to Heaven. Please read that entire chapter in your Bible study. But that chapter begins ‘Then the Kingdom of Heaven will be like this...’ Heaven... And verse 31, which begins our concentration begins ‘when the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory’. Heaven...

We have strained all of the community out of Christianity. We have dismissed the people and personalized it, so much so, that now charity passes for ministry. Charity is giving out of excess and ministry is serving with substance. Let me put it another way. Charity is what we give to Good Will. Ministry is what we do when dignitaries are coming to our homes. Except, we don’t know when we might have entertained angels, so we should treat everyone like a dignitary, until they show us different – then we should deal with them the way that Jesus deals with us when we show Jesus who we really are.

In the history of the people of God, whenever God has given a revelation to a prophet, it was not solely for the benefit of the prophet; ultimately it was for the people. It is always for the benefit of ‘the people’. When God called Moses and gave him his call and mission, it was a personal call with a public charge to benefit God’s people. Verse 32 is what is going to keep some people from going to Heaven. It says ‘All the nations will be gathered before him...’ That word ‘nations’ throws us off. Because in our modern reading, which is all too often filled with Pharisaical personal piety, we miss that it is not what we do individually, but what bodies like this one does that fits.

So Oklahoma House of Representatives, as my daddy used to say, on that great getting up morning, when you stand before God, which line will you be in, the sheep or the goats? Will God affirm you for the work that you do in this place with the power that God has allowed you to have for such a time as this? ‘When I was hungry, did you give me food?’ ‘When I was thirsty, did you give me clean water or the water like they gave them in Flint?’ ‘For the sake of saving a few dollars did you damn me to a life of disease and near certain death?’ ‘When I was naked, did you clothe me?’ ‘When I was sick, did you insure that I had proper coverage and mental health?’ ‘When I was in prison did you pass laws that even after I served my time and followed the rules still couldn’t hold certain licenses or live certain places which made my punishment perpetual?’ ‘When I was trying to learn to read and count, did you fund education?’ And you will ask, ‘When did we do that?’ And God will say, ‘Whatever you did for the least of these, you did also for me’.

Will we speak in first person or third person that day? By that I mean will we accept responsibility or pass the buck? Because now it depends on whether we are bragging or making excuses. First person ‘I, me, we’. Third person ‘he, she, him, her, they, them’. Will your excuse be ‘those’ on the other side of the aisle or those in leadership? I could always tell when my children were guilty by the way they answered the question that I asked. ‘Who broke this?’ ‘Huh?’ One usually couldn’t wait to tell on the other one, but when they had the same story, there was some type of conspiracy.”

Representative Nelson moved that when the clerk's desk is clear, the House stand adjourned to reconvene at 1:30 p.m., Monday, April 25, 2016, which was the order.

Pursuant to the motion of Representative Nelson, the House was adjourned at 11:05 p.m., to reconvene Monday, April 25, 2016, at 1:30 p.m.
