To the Honorable Speaker of the House and Members of the House of Representatives
First Regular Session, Fifty-eighth Oklahoma Legislature

Enrolled House Bill No. 1090

By: Hendrix of the House and Howard of the Senate

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Section 11 of Article VI of the Oklahoma Constitution, I have VETOED House Bill 1090.

House Bill 1090 would empower the State Auditor and Inspector to audit all books and accounts of any public officers, institutions, and other governmental entities without first receiving a request from the Governor, the chief executive officer of an agency, or a resolution from the Legislature. The change is a dramatic departure from existing state law and established practice and procedure.

House Bill 1090 would create a system where the State Auditor and Inspector is not accountable to any other arm of state government, which would fundamentally alter our system of checks and balances in Oklahoma. The existing law already requires that the agency being audited bear the cost of the audits. This could unnecessarily burden state agencies preventing them from performing their authorized statutory and constitutional duties.

For these reasons, I have vetoed House Bill 1090.

By the Governor of the State of Oklahoma

/s/ Kevin Stitt
